The Template

[enter your name here]

How to Use this Form
This document has all the necessary elements to write your chapter. The number of words shown in each section is merely a suggestion; however, you will want to have anywhere between 2,500 and 3,500 words (maximum) for a more substantial telling of your story.

To begin, if you know what the title of what your installment will be, double-click the instruction, "Type the chapter title here," at the very top of this page. The page header will open for you to fill in both the title and your name, as you wish it to appear in the book. When finished, double-click in the body of the page, where you will be able to enter your chapter details.

To help with the writing, I've broken down the process into five (5) components: My Message, My Back Story, The Main Event, The Wrap-Up, and My Bio. Each section will have a short description of what's needed for completion.

As you add to the document, pagination will automatically occur; hence, page breaks are not necessary. Remember to save your work often and in a folder on your computer designated to your writing.

When finished, email your submission to PeggyLee@CourageousWomenPublications.biz as an attachment. You will then receive a confirmation email from me. If I have any questions, you will be contacted.
